SO ORDERED.

Re: United States v. Giuseppe Valentino, 13 Cr. 872 (RA)

Ronnie Abrams, U.S.D.J.
February 18, 2021

Dear Judge Abrams:

I write on behalf of our client, Giuseppe Valentino, to request a sixth adjournment of the violation of supervised release hearing in this case, which is scheduled for tomorrow, February 5, 2021, at 10:00 a.m., because Mr. Valentino is unable to prepare for and attend court due to illness. Specifically, after testing positive for and continuing to suffer symptoms of Covid-19, Mr. Valentino was admitted to the hospital; he was subsequently discharged but continues to suffer Covid-19 related symptoms, including severe vertigo, as a result of which he remains bedridden. As a consequence of these ongoing health issues, the undersigned has not able to confer with Mr. Valentino in preparation for tomorrow's hearing. Accordingly, we request a two-week adjournment of the hearing date. The government consents to this request.

Sincerely,

/s/_____
Michael Tremonte
